Sadok El Ghoul

Campus Saint-Jean, University of Alberta

Trade Credit Provision and National Culture

Sadok El Ghoul is an Associate Professor of Business Administration at Campus Saint-Jean of the University of Alberta, where he teaches finance and international business courses. He received his Ph.D. and M.B.A. from Laval University and his B.B.A. from Institut Supérieur de Gestion (ISG) de Tunis. Before joining the University of Alberta, he taught international financial management at Laval University. His current research interests include corporate finance, corporate governance, corporate social responsibility, international finance, financial institutions, and the role of culture in financial markets. His research has been published in finance, international business, business ethics, and accounting journals, such as Journal of Corporate Finance, Financial Management, Journal of Banking & Finance, Journal of Financial Research, Journal of International Business Studies, Journal of Business Ethics and Contemporary Accounting Research.